The moon and sun are eternal travelers. Even the years wander on. A lifetime adrift in a boat, or in old age leading a tired horse into the years, every day is a journey, and the journey itself is home.

- Matsuo Bashō, Narrow Road to the Interior
(1694); tr. Sam Hamill

At Fushiogami-oji:

Beneath unclear skies,
My body obscured by drifting clouds,
I am saddened that my monthly obstruction
has begun.

Kumano deity in dream:

How could the god who mingles with the dust Suffer because of your monthly obstruction?
